

Says
What have we heard them say?
What can we imagine them saying?

Thinks
What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?
What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

Of the total agricultural area under operation, 10% of land has been given out on agricultural leases, with the percentage of leased out land varying across states

Access to agricultural credit is linked to the holding of land titles. As a result, small and marginal farmers, who account for more than half of the total land holdings, and may not hold formal land titles, are unable to access institutionalized credit.

India enacted the National Food Security Act in 2013. The 2013 Act aims to provide food and nutritional security to people by ensuring access to adequate amount of quality food at affordable prices.

Procurement of agricultural commodities is the purchase of food grains by the central or state governments. The Food Corporation of India is responsible for the purchase, storage, movement, distribution and sale of agricultural produce.

Minimum Support Prices are the prices at which the government purchases food grains from farmers. The largest procurement at MSPs is for rice and wheat. About a third of the wheat and rice produced in the country is procured by the central government

Does
What behavior have we observed?
What can we imagine them doing?

Feels
What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?
What other feelings might influence their behavior?